

FINANCIAL DECISION AUDIT™

IDENTIFY WHAT'S ACTUALLY
KEEPING YOU STUCK FINANCIALLY

You're not overwhelmed.
You're carrying too many open decisions.

TASHA J. NEASMAN

Let's be honest for a second...

ANSWER QUICKLY. DON'T OVERTHINK.

1

What financial decision have you been avoiding for more than 30 days?

2

What money-related task keeps getting pushed to "later"?

3

What is one number you don't currently have clarity on? (income, savings, debt, expenses, etc.)

AVOIDANCE IS NOT ACCIDENTAL.
IT'S A SIGNAL.

Your Decision Load

CHECK ALL THAT APPLY:

- ☐ I have accounts or subscriptions I haven't reviewed
- ☐ I've delayed a financial decision because I "need more time"
- ☐ I feel unsure about where my money is actually going
- ☐ I avoid looking at certain financial numbers
- ☐ I have multiple financial decisions open at once
- ☐ I start financial tasks but don't finish them

AVOIDANCE IS NOT ACCIDENTAL.
IT'S A SIGNAL.

Your Result

Count how many boxes you checked:

0~2 → Low Decision Load

You have general awareness, but some gaps remain.

3~5 → Moderate Decision Backlog

You are carrying unresolved decisions that are starting to create strain.

6+ → High Decision Overload

You are operating under decision fatigue, whether you've named it or not.

How This Is Affecting You

CHECK WHAT APPLIES:

- ☐ Mental fatigue when thinking about money
- ☐ Irritability or avoidance
- ☐ Difficulty focusing on other areas
- ☐ Feeling behind financially
- ☐ Decision paralysis

THIS IS NOT A DISCIPLINE PROBLEM.
THIS IS DECISION ACCUMULATION.

The Real Issue

You're not overwhelmed
because you're doing too much.

You're overwhelmed because too many decisions are sitting open without structure.

Clarity does not come from thinking harder.
It comes from closing decisions systematically.

What Needs to Happen Next

If you scored 3 or higher,
you don't need more information.

You need structure.

Right now, your mental energy is being drained by unresolved decisions that keep reopening in your mind.

Until those decisions are closed,
clarity will not stabilize.
